Open, approachable and unimaginably comfortable, the Zaar recliner represents the epitome of design excellence and is the perfect choice for those who place a high priority on eloquent form and effortless functionality.

The Zaar range was designed by New Zealand's Matt Hancock and is produced under licence in Australia by Sofa Establishment. The range is well suited to both domestic and commercial environments and will quickly become the firm favourite for anyone with time to sit, read, listen or watch.

Zaar is available in leather or the fabric of your choice. Like all Sofa Establishment products, it is guaranteed for ten years.
